

The American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists® (ACVO)® will host its sixth public service event providing free eye exams to Service Animals, May, 2013. Approximately 200 ACVO® board certified veterinary ophthalmologists will donate their services to provide complimentary screening eye examinations to animals across America and Canada. It is anticipated that through these efforts, Service Animal health can be improved and potential disease averted for thousands.

Please share this important information with your Service Animal clients.

Dr. Catherine Nunnery at VCA Veterinary Referral Associates will donate her services Mondays and Thursdays in May.

Qualification information and registration available at:

www.ACVOEyeExam.org

Registration is open April 2013
Complimentary eye screenings take place May 2013

For more information about Dr. Nunnery please see www.vcavra.com.

