

Brown Goldstein & Levy LLP (Baltimore, Maryland)

Associate - Civil and Criminal Litigation

Brown Goldstein & Levy LLP, a 22-lawyer litigation firm, seeks to hire an associate. We are trial lawyers who handle cases of every stripe, civil or criminal. A significant portion of the firm's practice is devoted to representing plaintiffs in civil rights cases, in areas such as disability rights, housing discrimination, and police misconduct. We take on large, complex personal injury matters and commercial disputes involving large and small businesses alike. The firm also maintains a widely-respected criminal defense practice. The associate will work as part of close-knit teams on a range of matters in a variety of contexts, including state and federal court, mediations, and administrative agencies. Associates play an essential part in all aspects of our cases, including meeting with clients, handling discovery, taking and defending depositions, drafting and arguing motions, participating in mediations, conducting trials, and working on appeals. BGL prioritizes the professional development of its associates and encourages all its attorneys to be active members of the bar and in their communities.

The ideal candidate is a person with judicial clerkship and/or meaningful litigation experience, an excellent work ethic, and a commitment to public interest work. Successful candidates must also have strong analytical, writing, research, and interpersonal skills. Compensation is commensurate with experience.

Brown, Goldstein & Levy is dedicated to fostering a diverse, inclusive, and supportive workplace environment. We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.
