

BUSINESS LAW FELLOWS

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Each year the Business Law Section appoints up to 12 diverse, outstanding lawyers to participate in two-year terms as Business Law Section Fellows.

The Fellows Program springboards participants into leadership roles within the Section by providing mentors, travel subsidies, and involvement opportunities. Through the program, the Section hopes to increase diversity in the Section and identify new leaders to participate in the Section's Committees.

ELIGIBILITY

All applicants must have demonstrated leadership involvement within the ABA, Business Law Section, and/or a bar organization committed to one of the following areas:

- Young lawyer (under 40 years of age or in practice for less than 10 years)
- Lawyer of color
- LGBTQ+ lawyer
- Lawyer with a disability

Visit ambar.org/bfellows to learn more. Applications due MAY 5, 2023.

WHAT DOES THE PROGRAM OFFER?

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Participants in the program are provided a path to Section Leadership through unique leadership positions within their substantive committees and the Business Law Fellows Committee.

MENTORS

Current Fellows are assigned program alumni mentors and substantive committee mentors. Mentors are expected to help Fellows navigate the Section and the Business Law Fellows Program and to identify and maximize the opportunities for participation within the Section.

MEETING ATTENDANCE SUBSIDIES

To assist Fellows in attending each meeting, program participants are reimbursed, consistent with the Section policies, for their attendance at the Business Law Section Spring Meeting, Business Law Section Fall Meeting, and one stand-alone meeting per year.
