

Peter Pan Accessibility Offerings

Presented by PNC Arts Alive

CCT is committed to making the inspiring, enriching, and engaging experience of live theatre accessible to all children and families.

Peter Pan is performed at the Southern Theatre, May 17-19

Sensory Friendly Options

While there is no Sensory Friendly Performance of Peter Pan, information regarding the content and sensory elements of the show will be available on our website and in the lobby of each performance. Picture Exchange Communication Systems (PECS) and fidgets will also be available on request and we suggest attending the Touch Tour for a preview of the performance (see below).

Touch Tour: Sat, May 18 at 11:30am

Guided tactile tour of the performance space, props, and costumes as well as a discussion with the actors and production team. The Touch Tour is facilitated by the Audio Describer and CCT Education Department, with ASL interpretation available upon request. All audience members are welcome to attend!

Reservations for this complimentary event can be made through our ticket office.
