TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP

DONATE TO YOUR CHARITY TODAY!

TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP BEYOND GOLF

Together, anything's possible.

The Travelers Championship is Connecticut's largest annual professional sporting event and one of only two New England stops on the PGA TOUR. Held each year at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Conn., the tournament is an economic winner for the state and region, creating millions of dollars in local impact and generating money for charitable organizations. Each year the tournament donates 100 percent of net proceeds to charity and also provides a platform for our charitable partners to raise awareness for their missions. In 2017, the Travelers Championship generated $1.7 million for 165 charities throughout the region. This brings the total to more than $38 million for regional charities since 1952.

YOU GIVE, WE GIVE MORE

Your designated charity can receive a bonus! Each organization that raises money through the Birdies for Charity program will receive at least a 15% bonus on top of the donations collected, up to a maximum bonus of $11,250 (equivalent to 15% of $75,000 in donations collected).

HOW IT WORKS

- All participating organizations must be publicly supported and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)3.
- Donations will be accepted through 6:00 p.m. EDT Sunday, June 24, 2018.
- All donations are 100% tax deductible.
- All donors will receive confirmation of payment.
- No donations will be accepted in exchange for goods and services (i.e. event registration, silent auction items, etc.).
