

Pink Sneakers Productions is casting a new reality series about a dynamic, tight-knit group of upscale siblings! Are you a family of brothers and sisters, full of personality, who live in the same city? Are your weekends filled with family functions, get-togethers and big social events?

Maybe you don't always see eye to eye, but if you can't imagine not having them in your lives, we want to hear your story!

If you're 21+ and your family wants to have their own reality show, please send recent photo(s), contact info and a short bio to michellep@pinksneakers.net
