

Nigeria 2010

Explore Africa's most populous country while studying African political systems, comparative American/African social systems and problems, world literature and world civilization at Imo State University in Owerri – ranked the most livable and peaceful city in Nigeria. Learn beyond the classroom by provoking as well as challenging your intellectual and cultural curiosity in a country that has a lot to offer as a case study of the past, present and future of Africa.

Owerri

Courses Offered:

- Comparative African/American Social Systems and Problems (credits in POLS, PUAD, CRJU, or SOCI)
- African Political Systems (POLS 4541)
- World Literature (ENGL 2110)
- World Civilization (HIST 1131)

Students will take two courses for a total of six credit hours

Cost: $5,070, includes roundtrip airfare, accommodation, most meals, cultural activities and excursions, travel insurance.

Dates: July 3 –24 , 2010

Contact: Dr. Charles Ubah,
(478) 445-7392,
charles.ubah@gcsu.edu

Program based at Imo State University. Excursions to cultural sites such as: Mbari Cultural Center, Imo Wonder Lake, Colonial Museum.