

Red Line Station Area Advisory Committee Member Nomination Form

By establishing Station Area Advisory Committees (SAACs), the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) would like to provide community stakeholders (station area residents, businesses, churches, organizations, and institutions) the opportunity to participate in the process of designing how the 20 proposed light rail stations will integrate into their communities. The MTA encourages interested community stakeholders to nominate themselves to serve on a committee in their area.

To nominate yourself to serve on a Red Line Station Area Advisory Committee, you can complete an online nomination form at www.baltimoreredline.com, or you can fill out this nomination form and submit it by mail or fax.

■ Mail your completed nomination form to:

Red Line Station Area Advisory Committee Member Nomination Form

Please list any relevant qualifications, skills, or prior experience:

- I understand that the SAACs will meet every 4 to 6 weeks between Fall 2010 and late 2011, and that some committees may need to meet more or less depending on their interests and the issues.

- I understand that I will need to keep my station area community engaged and informed during the SAAC process.

The SAAC Member Selection Process

Once the nomination process is closed, a selection panel of representatives from the Red Line Citizens' Advisory Council, Baltimore City, Baltimore County, urban design associations, community interest groups, and MTA will ensure that each committee is comprised of volunteers with diverse perspectives and skills.

To maximize participation and maintain manageable meetings, each committee will have 15 to 20 members. Once the committee members are selected, they will be notified about member orientation.
