

The National Federation of the Blind believes that an appreciation for and enjoyment of art is part of living the life we want.

You are cordially invited to Sensory Knowledge, a tactile art experience hosted by the National Federation of the Blind.

Be prepared to wake up your senses with multi-sensory art!

Exhibit and silent auction featuring the works of acclaimed blind sculptor Michael Naranjo, Ann Cunningham, Rosalyn Driscoll, and others!

Complimentary wine and hors d'evours will be served.

Friday, December 9, 5:30 to 8:00 PM

200 East Wells Street at Jernigan Place
Baltimore, Maryland 21230

Free garage parking is available at the National Federation of the Blind Jernigan Institute. The garage entrance is to the right of the main doors on 200 East Wells Street.

If you have any questions about this event, please contact Lou Ann Blake at lblake@nfb.org or (410) 659-9314 extension 2221.

www.nfb.org/tactile-art-symposium