

Projects built with people are different than projects built for people.

“Representation matters because there is a richness to disability you are probably not aware of.”

-Elsa S. Henry

The Mayor’s Office for People with Disabilities and the City’s Commissioners’ Office would like to acknowledge the efforts of those who were instrumental in the creation of this map to support our efforts to ensure that the City of Philadelphia and are our world are inclusive and equitable.