

Resources

We offer a variety of useful resources for blind Americans of all ages including children and veterans. As the largest organization of blind people in the nation, the National Federation of the Blind is committed to providing important resources to help blind people live the lives we want.

NFB-NEWSLINE®. Free to anyone who is blind, visually impaired, or print-disabled, NFB-NEWSLINE makes more than five hundred publications accessible through a phone, the web, or its mobile app. Learn more by phone at 410-659-9314, extension 2317 or nfb.org/nfbnewsline.

Free White Canes. The long white cane is a basic and necessary tool for independent travel. We're proud to offer free fiberglass canes to blind Americans through our free white cane program. Learn more by phone at 410-659-9314, option 1 or nfb.org/canes.

Independence Market. Our Independence Market offers hundreds of products and literature especially created by and for the blind. Learn more by phone at 410-659-9314, extension 2216 or at nfb.org/independence-market.

Publications. We produce a variety of publications including our flagship magazine, the Braille Monitor; our e-newsletter, Imagineering Our Future; the Nation's Blind Podcast; and the Voice of the Nation's Blind Blog. Learn more and subscribe at nfb.org/publications or email nfbpublications@nfb.org.

For more information, please visit nfb.org, or contact us at 410-659-9314 or nfb@nfb.org.