Social Security touches the lives of millions, providing vital services and a social safety net through retirement, disability and survivor benefits. Join the talented and dedicated attorney team supporting these services in the Denver Office of the General Counsel (OGC). In addition to the opportunity to handle meaningful and challenging legal work, we offer comprehensive benefits and a professional, team-oriented work environment.

OGC fraud attorneys investigate and prosecute criminal violations that undermine SSA programs. Attorneys are assigned to a United States Attorney's Office and work closely with the Office of the Inspector General and other law enforcement agencies. Attorneys are responsible for all stages of the criminal judicial process, including grand jury proceedings; indictments; motion practice; trial; and sentencing. Attorneys have significant responsibility for their own caseloads, but also receive intensive mentoring, training, and support through OGC and the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Candidates should have a strong desire to serve the public; have excellent research, writing and communication skills; and have strong litigation experience or aptitude. We encourage candidates with diverse backgrounds, qualities and experiences to apply.

Salary: GS-12 $66,167 - $86,021 (BASE PAY)

GS-13 $100,027 - $130,039 (BASE PLUS LOCALITY PAY)

We will consider individuals for the GS-12 or GS-13 level based on qualifications and/or experience. NOTE: This is NOT a career ladder position.
