

MD TAP and Project Reboot: Making Adaptive Technologies Available!

Saturday, October 26, 2013
1:00—3:00 PM

Learn about two sources of technologies for people who are blind or have low vision: The Maryland Technology Assistance Program (MD Department of Disabilities) demonstrates and loans a wide variety of equipment as well as low-interest financing. Project Reboot, a local nonprofit, makes available refurbished computers to eligible individuals at a nominal cost, including a demo edition of the JAWS screenreader and a 90-day warranty.
