

“Diversity in Disability” Symposium

Event is Free

When?

Saturday, April 14, 2012
9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Where?

Center for Tomorrow
Flint & Service Center Roads
University at Buffalo North Campus
Amherst, NY 14260

Presenters:

Ari Ne’eman

Founding President

The Autistic Self Advocacy Network (ASAN)
Chair of the Policy and Program Evaluation Committee
National Council on Disability (NCD)

Stacey Milbern

Community Outreach Director

National Youth Leadership Network (NYLN)

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Tammy Milillo

Senior Research Associate

University at Buffalo Chemistry Department
Veteran Advocate Increasing Awareness and Opportunity for People with Disabilities in Science and Engineering

When one thinks of diversity what comes to mind? Usually, we think of race, religion, and ethnicity. This symposium, appropriate for students, faculty, and professionals, will explore “Diversity in Disability.” Disability is not an obstacle; it’s a difference! Hear from national level presenters, question panel participants, and see exhibits from Buffalo’s Museum of disABILITY History as we explore and grow to understand and appreciate these differences.

Find 1st Annual UB Diversity in Disability Symposium on Facebook!

Register online at: <https://www.ubevents.org/event/ddsymposium>