

COURAGEOUS KIDS CLIMBING

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Thank you for your interest in Courageous Kids Climbing (CKC). Courageous Kids Climbing provides free opportunities for children between the ages of 3-years and 103-years with special needs, physical or developmental, to experience the various forms of rock climbing at events held in Idaho, Washington, Nevada, California and Arizona.

Our Climbing On Stuff (COS) program provides free opportunities for children who are legally-blind to look at things like fighter jets with their hands.

Enclosed in this packet you will find a waiver for the COS facility, a waiver and application form for Courageous Kids Climbing. In some cases, the waiver form has been replaced by the ability to complete the waiver for the facility on-line. If you have completed the waiver on-line, please let us know! A link will be provided for that waiver here:

PLEASE COMPLETE ATTACHED WAIVER.

We ask that you complete these forms in advance and return them to Courageous Kids Climbing to reserve a spot for your child. Please understand that a spot at the event will NOT be reserved until we receive these forms back! By returning them in advance of the event, you will also help expedite the check-in process, allowing your child to get into the event quicker!

You will also find a flyer for the event. Please share the flyer with any potential participants, special education teachers, physical or occupational therapists, media, etc. We desperately need your help in spreading the word about our event.

We ask that you visit our Facebook page, Courageous Kids Climbing and “like” it. This site will maintain the latest information on the event that you are signed up for as well as other items of interest and other events.

Finally, do not hesitate to contact us if you have ANY questions. Keep in mind that no one is forced to participate, so if your child just wants to come and hangout with us, that’s cool!

Again, thank you for your interest and I look forward to seeing you soon!
