

AccessPlace Launch Event

Interested in promoting accessibility in your community?

Come try AccessPlace, a new platform for finding and sharing accessibility information about local restaurants.

AccessPlace is designed for people with disabilities to find and share information about the accessibility of local restaurants through community-generated accessibility ratings and reviews. AccessPlace will provide valuable information about restaurant accessibility features and potential barriers to help users make informed decisions before leaving home!

Join us to learn more about AccessPlace, rate the accessibility of restaurants in the UNM Campus area, and share your feedback to improve the platform.

Day/Time: Saturday, 6/27/26 from 10:30am - 2:30pm

Meeting Place: University of New Mexico Campus

Restaurant Locations: UNM Campus area

Email for more information or to register for the event:

jsalaza2@salud.unm.edu

How Does AccessPlace Work?

- Create a Personal Accessibility Profile.
- Rate local restaurants through star ratings and written reviews.
- Search for local restaurants and view accessibility ratings and reviews from users with similar profiles.

Benefits for Users

- Plan outings with greater confidence
- Reduce surprises and accessibility barriers
- Make more informed decisions about where to dine
- Contribute to a growing community resource
- Help improve accessibility awareness in your community