

BOTTOM DOLLARS

An Original Film
About employment
for all by
Rooted in Rights

Bottom Dollars is an hour-long documentary that exposes segregated workplaces and low wages often paid to people with disabilities. Through personal stories and expert interviews, the film presents a vision for better alternatives that promote community inclusion, equal opportunity, and fair wages.

The National Council on Disability (NCD) invites you to participate in its council meeting on Thursday, October 26 at the Aloft Louisville Downtown 102 W. Main St., Louisville, KY, conference rooms Tactic 1 & 4. The meeting will begin at 9:00 AM with the release of NCD's 2017 Progress Report. This report focuses on the prevalence of poverty among people with disabilities and how federal regulations impact a person with a disability's ability to achieve economic independence. The release includes a screening at 9:30 AM of the documentary Bottom Dollars a production by Rooted in

Rights and a panel discussion to follow the screening which will discuss report recommendations and findings. The screening of Bottom Dollars is in collaboration with Kentucky Protection & Advocacy, Commonwealth Council on Developmental Disabilities, and the University of Kentucky-Human Development Institute. A reception will follow the Council meeting at 5 PM at The Mix located on the lobby level at the Aloft Louisville.

Learn more and view agenda at:

www.federalregister.gov/documents/2017/10/11/2017-22057/sunshine-act-meetings