

Peabody String Sinfonia

Maryland State Library for the Blind and Print

Disabled Thursday, April 14th, 2022

7pm

September

Earth, Wind, and Fire

Arranged by KMG

String Serenade in e
minor

Nathan J. Hillman

II. Auroras

Fly Me to the Moon

Bart Howard

Arranged by KMG

Swan Lake

Pyotr Ilych

Tchaikovsky

Arranged by Sean Brown

Don't Stop Believin'

Journey

Impromptu

Jean

Sibelius

Hallelujah

Leonard Cohen

La Muerte del Angel

Astor

Piazzolla

Arranged by Nathan J. Hillman

Concerto in g minor RV.
157

Antonio Vivaldi

III. Allegro

Amazing Grace

John Newton

Arranged by Nathan J. Hillman

Peabody String Sinfonia Members

Violin	Viol	Cello
Hayley	a	Anita-Mae
Camp	Joseph Bates	Kahan
Sophie	Nathan
Chan Adam	Hillman Rose
Davis	Wodarczyk
Teresa
Deskur
	Bas
	s Justin
	Cao Abi
	Koehler

The Peabody String Sinfonia is a student-led, conductor-less string orchestra whose mission is to bring healing and beauty to people in our Baltimore community who are in challenging situations or in places where they cannot easily gain access to live music, including cancer treatment, incarceration, homelessness, hospitalization, addiction, and hunger. Our members are students and alumni of the Peabody Conservatory of Music who volunteer their time for this project.

We value connection and kinship most of all. We bring music where life is and our audience members bring life to the ensemble. This is a chance for students to experience connection with each other and our audiences and to enhance our appreciation of what it means to be a musician in the larger world beyond the conservatory and concert hall. The Peabody String Sinfonia is truly all about the music and our focus is on bringing the most beautiful string ensemble repertoire, prepared and performed at the highest level, to these communities.