

A NIGHT AT THE ARCH

Saturday May 18, 2013, 6 pm to 9 pm

Private event for children & adults, who are blind or visually impaired, and their families & friends.

The National Park Service and the Society for the Blind and Visually Impaired invite you to a special evening of hands-on, tactile and auditory experiences of the Arch.

Come join us for a free night at the Gateway Arch and the Museum of Westward Expansion!

- Journey to the Top- ride a tram to the top of the Arch.
- Hands-On Activities- build the Arch with foam blocks, Make a branding iron, feel tools, animal furs & bones, clothing and much more.
- Family & Friend Photo -Free souvenir of your night.
- Movies- Monument to the Dream,
Lewis & Clark: Great Journey West
(DVS available).

Reservations Required by May 14, 2013.

Register by Calling 314-968-9000 or e-mail
arch@sbsbvi.org

*additional information available at www.sbsbvi.org

FREE FAMILY & FRIENDS EVENT!

JEFFERSON
NATIONAL PARKS
ASSOCIATION

DIRECTIONS AND PARKING INFORMATION:

Free Parking will be provided in the Arch Parking Garage located on Washington Avenue (to the east of Memorial Drive).

Upon leaving the garage, walk through the grounds of the park heading south to the Arch.

Entrance to the Arch will be under the north leg of the Arch (closest to the parking garage).

Drop Off at Old Cathedral parking lot allowed after 6:15 pm (after Mass ends.) The Old Cathedral parking lot is located at Memorial and Walnut Streets.

Call-A-Ride and Taxi-Cabs Please Schedule Arrival at 6:15 PM or later and Pick-Up at 8:30 PM. Drop-off and Pick-up Point at Old Cathedral (off Memorial Dr.)

Upon Arrival at the North Entrance of the Arch you will go through security screening at the entrance. Please be aware that you may have to remove contents from pockets, metal objects, and belts and place them in a tray to be screened. No weapons, including knives are allowed.

Stop by the information Desk to get your free parking pass and receive information on how to begin your fun adventure!