

NFB BELL® Academy: Upcoming Event for Blind Youth

Attend the National Federation of the Blind (NFB) BELL® (Braille Enrichment for Literacy and Learning) Academy, a transformative learning experience for blind and low-vision youth. Through engaging activities and hands-on learning, participants will deepen their Braille literacy and learn nonvisual skills to build confidence and independence.

Activities Include:

- Interactive Braille lessons that celebrate two-hundred years of tactile literacy.
- Inspiring stories of blind inventors and change-makers.
- Learn about the enduring legacy of Louis Braille.

Program Near You

The NFB of Missouri will host two NFB BELL Academies, one in St. Louis at Parkway United Church of Christ, and the other at Hope Church in Kansas City. Both programs run June 16-27, 2025, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Families should bring their child's lunch, unless otherwise directed. Registration is $50 per participant. Families must arrange transportation, but alternative options are available by contacting the program coordinator. Registration closes June 1, 2025. Please contact Jenny Carmack at 314-239-9776 or jcarmack@nfbmo.org for more details.
