

A row of colorful silhouettes representing diverse individuals with various disabilities, including a person with a cane, a person in a wheelchair, and a person with a hearing aid.

Do you have a disability? Do you identify as Black/African American?

The Yale Intersectional Stigma Study is looking to interview Black individuals with disabilities (18 years or older) to learn about experiences of ableism, racism, and daily challenges.

Participants will be compensated $30 via Amazon eGiftcard.

Interested? Contact us

If you are interested in participating and would like to learn more about our study, please email us at yaledisabilityresearch@gmail.com