

2017 ACPD/Alexandria Chamber of Commerce Disability Awareness Awards

The 2017 Disability Awareness Awards presentation co-sponsored by the Alexandria Commission on Persons with Disabilities (ACPD) and the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce will take place at 5:30 p.m. on June 27, 2017, at a reception to be held at Alexandria City Hall.

Nominees are sought for the following categories:

Category 1: An Alexandria business that makes a commitment to promote positive awareness among its employees of the needs of customers with disabilities or otherwise makes special efforts to render its goods or services accessible to persons with disabilities.

Category 2: An Alexandria business that makes a commitment to hire persons with disabilities or aid employees with disabilities to further their careers.

If you are aware of any businesses that might warrant recognition for these awards please take the time to fill out or distribute the nomination form to the appropriate individuals so that a well deserving business might be considered for these awards. Below is a nomination form for the two awards.

The deadline for nominations is April 28, 2017.
