

Civil Rights 101

A Workshop for Social Service Providers

Have your clients experienced discrimination in housing or the workplace based on their race, color, age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, disability, use of a Section 8 housing voucher, religion or other reason?

This workshop is designed for social service providers to assist their clients by learning:

- ✓ How to identify illegal discrimination
- ✓ How to file a civil rights charge
- ✓ Laws protecting people with disabilities
- ✓ Employment laws relating criminal records
- ✓ Resources related to civil rights

Wednesday, April 4, 2012

1:00 – 4:30pm

Free!

Location: 810 Third Avenue (the Central Building) in downtown Seattle
Main floor conference room

Register for this workshop by calling Bradley Wilburn at 206-615-0508 or email Bradley.Wilburn@Seattle.Gov. Space is limited and on a first come first serve basis. Sponsored by the Seattle Office for Civil Rights.

