

Overcoming Barriers to Employment

*Shoreline Community College
September 10th, 2012*

Are you between 16 and 26 with a disability or a parent with a disability?

Are you seeking employment for the first time or having difficult time finding a job? The Overcoming Barriers to Employment Summit is designed to assist job seekers with disabilities as they navigate the road to employment.

The day-long summit is being held at Shoreline Community College on September 10th and is completely free to participants. The day includes workshops, meals and an opportunity to connect to employment resources.

Participants will attend sessions on Interview Preparation, Job Searches on the Internet, Secrets & Techniques to Finding the Right Job for You, Accommodations in The Workplace, and Employer Benefits of Hiring People with Disabilities.

The keynote speaker will be Jelica Nuccio, first deaf-blind Director of the Seattle Deaf-Blind Service Center (DBSC).

SIGN UP TO ATTEND AT BROWN PAPER TICKETS <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/>

The summit is being offered by Northshore/Shoreline Community Network and Shoreline Community College with funding through a grant from DVR. Provided with support from the DVR North Office, Northshore/Shoreline Community Network, Shoreline QuickStart, and City of Shoreline.
