

Attention people with visual impairment!

Interested in participating in an activity to help test the accessibility of a financial website?

JPMorgan Chase will be conducting an accessibility study to test the design of our website and how well it serves you. The session will take about 90 minutes and we will give you a gift of $150 cash for your participation and can also arrange transportation to and from our facility.

To participate in the study, we ask that you meet the following requirements:

- Be using some kind of assistive technology related to visual impairment
- Have experience using financial websites (Online Banking) a few times a month
- Be over 18 years of age

If you are available and would like to be part of this activity, please call at (206) 500-2709 or reply via e-mail to brian.espinosa@jpmchase.com with subject line "Financial website study".

Please provide:

- Your name
- Age
- Email address
- Indicate the financial website that you have experience with
- Phone number
- Assistive Technology
  1. The type of assistive technology that you use and if it is compatible with other systems or not
  2. Are you comfortable coming to our facility for the study and setting up your assistive technology using your own computer?

We will contact you within the next few days if you are an appropriate match.
