

Three Together

Tight Harmony

Three Together morphed from the Don Mitchell and Judy Koch Duo into a 3-part tight-harmony trio when Doug Smith joined in late 1997. They strive to blend difficult or exacting vocal parts with easy-to-hear guitar and flute. Three Together play Folk and Pop music from "our era" to make it fun for each audience. Doug Smith is both an International fingerstyle guitar champion and a Grammy winner, whose praises are sung by everyone from legendary fingerstyle master Alex DeGrassi to movie critic Leonard Malton.

FINE COMPANY

Songs with that campfire feeling

Fine Company, comprising Jim Portillo and Bill Murlin, expand upward and outward from a classic folk music base to put a creative, entertaining stamp on a range of enjoyable songs and tunes. Their music includes history, relationships, social scenes and humor, all backed with solid instrumentation. Deb Blakewood, Vancouver, Wash., is an accomplished singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, most recently specializing on the bass.
