

NFB BELL® Academy: Upcoming Event for Blind Youth

Attend the National Federation of the Blind (NFB) BELL® (Braille Enrichment for Literacy and Learning) Academy, a transformative learning experience for blind and low-vision youth. Through engaging activities and hands-on learning, participants will deepen their Braille literacy and learn nonvisual skills to build confidence and independence.

Activities Include:

- Interactive Braille lessons that celebrate two-hundred years of tactile literacy.
- Inspiring stories of blind inventors and change-makers.
- Learn about the enduring legacy of Louis Braille.

Program Near You

The NFB of Ohio will host an NFB BELL Academy at the Ohio State School for the Blind from June 15–20, 2025. The residential program includes all meals, with a $125 registration fee per participant. Scholarships are available. Parents/guardians must arrange transportation. Students who cannot stay overnight are welcome. Registration closes June 1, 2025.
