We are committed to diverse, inclusive casting. For every role, please submit qualified performers, without regard to disability, race and ethnicity, age, color, national origin, or any other basis prohibited by law unless otherwise specifically indicated.

Denoting a part as "Guest Star" doesn't guarantee an actor will get that billing. Billing is negotiable based on an actor's credits and script changes. "Guest Star" and the order of the roles on the breakdown also does not indicate a role will be Top of Show. If you have concerns that a role might be a one-day guest star, please address it with us before your client comes in.

O-1 VISA NOTE: All actors must be a U.S. Citizen, have a valid green card or a valid O-1 Visa. We must be alerted if your client has an O-1 Visa BEFORE they come in.

[ANNIE B.]Mid 20s to 40, FEMALE, a fiercely independent firecracker of a woman, who doesn't allow a minor inconvenience like blindness prevent her from living her best life. Annie was born with perfect vision. Due to a congenital eye condition, she slowly lost her sight, which got progressively worse through adolescence until she was declared legally blind as a teenager. Besides trying (and mostly succeeding) to live as normal a life as possible, she also has to deal daily with one of the most common obstacles of the visually impaired – other people's misconceptions... GUEST STAR, ANY ETHNICITY, PLEASE SUBMIT ACTRESSES WHO ARE BLIND OR HAVE LOW VISION
