

Louisiana Tech University
Dean of the College of Education

Louisiana Tech University (www.latech.edu) seeks applications and nominations for an experienced, dynamic leader to serve as Dean of the College of Education. The College of Education, which has received continuous NCATE accreditation since 1954, consists of three academic departments: Curriculum, Instruction, and Leadership; Kinesiology; and Psychology and Behavioral Sciences. The College serves a diverse student population of approximately 3,000 students enrolled in 25 degree programs including baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degrees (EdD In Leadership, PhD in Counseling Psychology, and PhD in Industrial/Organizational Psychology). Professional and outreach activities are conducted through the Psychological Services Clinic; Professional Development and Research Institute on Blindness; Sci-TEC Education Center; and A.E. Phillips Laboratory School.

Applicants or nominees must have an earned doctorate in a field represented in the College; evidence of administrative leadership and experience in higher education; a record of scholarly and instructional accomplishment; and recent successful experience with accreditation processes. Experience in fundraising and developing public/private partnerships is preferred. The Dean, as chief administrative officer of the College, provides leadership in strategic planning; policy making; budgeting; faculty recruitment and development; fundraising; student and alumni relationships; and PK-12 partnerships.

Screening will begin October 15, 2012 and will continue until the position is filled. The application packet must include a letter of philosophy and qualifications, current vita, and names and contact information for three references to be submitted to
