

ORIENTATION AND MOBILITY INSTRUCTORS WANTED!

The State of Nevada needs an Orientation and Mobility Instructor in the Las Vegas Area

Orientation and Mobility Instructors provide specialized training to blind and visually impaired clients in orientation, mobility and the use of low-vision aids. Clients are taught to successfully employ alternative techniques at work, home, and out in the community in order to achieve maximum independence.

Instructors help train clients in a variety of techniques including: basic pre-mobility skills, sighted guide techniques, and basic / advanced cane techniques which integrate concepts of sensory training, sound localization and spatial characteristics. This position requires travel around the Las Vegas area, so a driver's license or the ability to travel with accommodation is required.

Minimum Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in rehabilitation teaching of the blind or closely related field and one year of professional experience training persons who are blind or visually impaired in alternative techniques of independent living and providing instruction in the use of low vision aids in a rehabilitation setting.

The State of Nevada offers an excellent benefits package including:

- 3 weeks of paid vacation earned per year
- 3 weeks of sick leave earned per year
- 11 paid holidays per year
- Affordable health, vision and dental care
- Participation in the Public Employee Retirement System
