

Is Your Future Going In the Right Direction?

The Metro Future College Intern Program is designed to cultivate future talent through progressive internships, which offer increasing levels of work experience and professional development opportunities associated with the transit industry and Metro's operational environment. The program runs approximately 12 weeks, typically June through August.

More information is on the back.

 Future College Intern Program

Is Your Future Going In the Right Direction?

The Metro Future College Intern Program is designed to cultivate future talent through progressive internships, which offer increasing levels of work experience and professional development opportunities associated with the transit industry and Metro's operational environment. The program runs approximately 12 weeks, typically June through August.

More information is on the back.

 Future College Intern Program

Metro Future College Intern Program

The Metro Future College Intern Program is designed to cultivate future talent through progressive internships, which offer increasing levels of work experience and professional development opportunities associated with the transit industry and Metro's operational environment. The program runs approximately 12 weeks, typically June through August.

Internships available in:

Accounting	Finance	Legal
Transit Police	Safety	Auditing
Communications	Marketing	Business
Bus & Rail Engineering	Emergency Management	Human Resources
Transportation	Urban Planning	Government Relations

Eligibility requirements:

- Enrollment in an accredited college or university, with the student, at minimum, being a rising college sophomore.
- Major in course work aligned with the academic and functional requirements of the position for which the student has applied.
- Minimum cumulative 2.8 GPA. Additional departmental or functional requirements may apply per internship.
- Graduate students are welcomed to apply.
- Students must submit an official college transcript to verify eligibility for the Metro Future College Intern Program.

For more information and to apply to the Metro Future College Intern Program, visit wmata.com/careers.

WMATA is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, physical or mental disability, or status as a protected veteran, or any other status protected by applicable federal law, except where a bona fide occupational qualification exists. Our hiring process is designed to be accessible and free from discrimination.

Metro Future College Intern Program

The Metro Future College Intern Program is designed to cultivate future talent through progressive internships, which offer increasing levels of work experience and professional development opportunities associated with the transit industry and Metro's operational environment. The program runs approximately 12 weeks, typically June through August.

Internships available in:

Accounting	Finance	Legal
Transit Police	Safety	Auditing
Communications	Marketing	Business
Bus & Rail Engineering	Emergency Management	Human Resources
Transportation	Urban Planning	Government Relations

Eligibility requirements:

- Enrollment in an accredited college or university, with the student, at minimum, being a rising college sophomore.
- Major in course work aligned with the academic and functional requirements of the position for which the student has applied.
- Minimum cumulative 2.8 GPA. Additional departmental or functional requirements may apply per internship.
- Graduate students are welcomed to apply.
- Students must submit an official college transcript to verify eligibility for the Metro Future College Intern Program.

For more information and to apply to the Metro Future College Intern Program, visit wmata.com/careers.

WMATA is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, physical or mental disability, or status as a protected veteran, or any other status protected by applicable federal law, except where a bona fide occupational qualification exists. Our hiring process is designed to be accessible and free from discrimination.